PROCEEDINGS

THE COURT: We're here this morning in the matter of United States of America versus Egor Chernov, 2:07-cr-423. United States is represented by Mr. Gregory Lisa and Mr. Robert Tully. Defendant is present and represented by his counsel, Mr. Dmitry Gurovich. We're here for sentencing.

What do you want to tell me, Mr. Lisa?

MR. LISA: Good morning.

THE COURT: Good morning.

MR. LISA: Your Honor, I think by and large the parties have come to an agreement on the PSI presentence report as well as proper guideline calculations. We would submit that under the factors of 3553(e), considering everything, including the circumstances of the defendant and the circumstances of the case, this is exactly the type of case that should fall within the guideline range.

The parties have agreed to the plea agreement in paragraph 13, that the government would recommend the low end of the guideline range, which for Count 1 results in a 21 -- 27-month sentence. Per Counts 3 and 4, that would add on a mandatory minimum of 24 months.

The parties have agreed that Counts 3 and 4, they cannot run concurrently with another sentence. They can, in the Court's discretion, run concurrent to each other.

We would also recommend that that 27 plus 24 months would result in a 51-month sentence. We respectfully submit that that calculation is appropriate in this case given all the factors enumerated including the guidelines but not limited to them.

THE COURT: Thank you, Mr. Lisa.

Mr. Gurovich?

MR. GUROVICH: Thank you, Your Honor.

Your Honor, the defendant agrees with Mr. Lisa's assessment. We are going to remain true to our agreement with just a few requests, Your Honor, if I may.

THE COURT: Yes.

MR. GUROVICH: Mr. Chernov's parents have many issues back in Russian, and I have something for the Court with respect to that. I believe his father underwent surgery, and I would like the Court to look at the papers and consider them, if I may.

THE COURT: Please bring them up. Thank you.

1 MR. GUROVICH: Also, Your Honor, I was
2 wondering if the Court would be inclined to recommend
3 a camp facility or a minimum facility in California
4 close to Los Angeles for Mr. Chernov to be
5 transferred after sentence and as well a RSAT
6 facility.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 MR. GUROVICH: Thank you, very much.

9 THE COURT: Thank you. Does your client
10 want to say anything? He has the right to if he 11 wants to; doesn't have to if he doesn't.

12 MR. GUROVICH: No, Your Honor.

13 THE COURT: All right. Let me just glance
14 at these.

15 I have reviewed the resentencing report and
16 considered Counsels' presentations and reviewed these 17 medical documents briefly. I believe this is an 18 appropriate situation for the application of the 19 guideline sentence.

20 I will sentence at the low end on Count 1,
21 which is 27 months. I will sentence for Counts 3 and
22 4, 24 months each; however, the sentence on Counts 3
23 and 4 will run concurrently with each other and 24 consecutive to the sentence on Count 1.

25 It is the judgment of the Court that the

7

1 adopted by this court. Defendant shall also comply
2 with the following special conditions:

3 In the event that the defendant is
4 deported from the United States, the defendant shall
5 not illegally re-enter the United States. In the 6 event the defendant should be released prior to -- he
7 should contact the United States Probation Office in 8 the district of release within 72 hours of release.

9 If the defendant returns to the United
10 States during the period of supervision after being
11 deported, he is instructed to contact the United
12 States Probation Office in the District of Utah
13 within 72 hours of arrival in the United States.

14 Should the defendant not be deported, the 15 defendant will submit to drug and alcohol testing as 16 directed by the probation office and pay a $115 fee
17 to partially defray the costs for testing and shall 18 participate in substance abuse evaluation and/or 19 treatment under a copayment plan as directed by the 20 Probation Office.

21 During the course of treatment, if any,
22 the defendant should not consume alcohol or frequent
23 any establishment where alcohol is the primary item
24 of order. The Court find that the defendant does not 25 have the ability to pay a fine and hereby waives the

6

1 defendant, Egor Chernov, is placed in the custody of
2 United States Bureau of Prisons for a period of 51
3 months. Upon release from confinement, the defendant
4 shall be placed in a supervised release for the term
5 of 36 months.

6 Within 72 hours of release from the
7 custody of the Bureau of Prisons, the defendant shall
8 report in person to the probation office in the 9 district which the defendant is released.

10 In accordance with the Violent Crime
11 Control and Law Enforcement Act of 1994, the Court
12 orders that the defendant submit to one drug test
13 within 15 days of placement on supervision and at 14 least two periodic drug tests thereafter as directed
15 by the probation office.

16 Pursuant to controlling law, the defendant
17 shall submit to the collection of a DNA sample at the
18 direction of the Bureau of Prisons or probation
19 office. Defendant shall not commit any federal,
20 state, or local crime, and as a convicted felon would
21 be prohibited from possessing a firearm or other
22 dangerous device.

23 In addition, the defendant shall not
24 illegally possess a controlled substance and shall
25 comply with the standard conditions of supervision

8

1 fine.

2 Since he pled guilty to three counts, it
3 is ordered that the defendant pay a special
4 assessment fee in the amount of $300. Counts 2, 5,
5 6, and 7 are dismissed.

6 The Court recommends that the defendant be
7 placed in a federal correctional facility as close to
8 Los Angeles as possible and with as minimal security
9 as possible. The Court also recommends the RSAT
10 program and also recommends that the defendant
11 receive appropriate medical attention and treatment.

12 Is there anything else?

13 MR. GUROVICH: Just one issue of
14 clarification, if I may. I just want to make sure
15 the defendant is getting credit for the time he's 16 already been in custody.

17 THE COURT: Yeah. That's standard. He's
18 been -- he's been in custody since mid-June of 2007,
19 I think.

20 MR. LISA: That's correct, Your Honor.

21 THE COURT: And that's federal custody.
22 So yes, he will get credit for that.

23 MR. GUROVICH: Thank you.

24 THE COURT: Thank you all. Anything else?

25 MR. LISA: Nothing more from the
